KAUFMAN-MUSTAIN MATCH CALLED OFF

The Terry Mustain-Al Kaufman fight that was scheduled for Marysville at some date between April 1st and 6th has been called off, owing to a disagreement between the promoters and Mustain over financial matters. The Marysville club claimed that it had evidence that Mustain had fought and was defeated last December in Redding by some local scrapper named Galloway, and therefore that Mustain was no drawing card against Kaufman. Terry says he was the victim of a plot; that he never fought in Redding, and that some colored bootblack was induced to impersonate him and take a beating. Whatever the facts in the case, the Marysville people called off the match, which had been signed up.

Barney Van Buskirk, manager of the Marysville club, took the initiative in the affair. Here is Mustain's verdict of the trouble that has cost him a match:

Last December I was training with Jack (Twin) Sullivan at the time he was getting into shape for his fight with Al Kaufman. A letter came from Redding offering me a main event bout. The manager of the club said there would be $200 in it for me, and I agreed to go, as it would not take much time. I wired for transportation, which was furnished. When I arrived the club told me that I was to fight in the preliminary, the winner to get $10 and the loser $5. I told the manager I couldn't do anything like that, and he began to kick because he had furnished transportation. I told him that was his own fault, as he had made me a definite promise. I took the train the same night for San Francisco, but learned later that some bootblack had been substituted for me and posed under my name. As the people of Redding did not know me, this was easy. He lost the fight to a fellow named Galloway. I never fought there. I was willing to fight Kaufman in Marysville, winner take all, because if I can't lick him it is time that I know it. I would, however, fight for the loser's end.

It is possible, if Kaufman agrees, that Eddie Smith would match Mustain and the ex-blacksmith for six rounds before the Reliance club's show in Oakland this month.
